BOCA Sets "Buy A Black Newspaper" Day For September 17th 1981

BOCA, The Black Owned Communications Alliance, has announced a national "Buy A Black Newspaper" day for Thursday, September 17th, 1981. On that day, all Black Americans will be asked to buy only Black newspapers to demonstrate the importance of the Black press to the Black community.

The livelihood of all media depends upon its ability to attract advertisers, but advertisers rely on the use of general market media to reach Black consumers believing it makes no fundamental difference. The objective of the "Buy A Black Newspaper" campaign is to help change this type of thinking by encouraging a nationwide demonstration of support for Black newspapers.

BOCA Executive Director Terrie M. Williams said: "Black radio and television stations, newspapers and magazines throughout the country will be carrying BOCA's messages nationally in support of this effort. Millions are expected to participate in this historic demonstration of Black unity. This campaign will give Black Americans an opportunity to demonstrate their commitment to Black media."

BOCA is the first trade association organized by owners of Black communications companies. Conceived in August, 1979 by a group of the nation's leading Black communicators, BOCA seeks to address the needs of Black media and the Black consumer market. It's objectives are to: encourage greater use of Black-owned media by the advertising and marketing community; (2)emphasize the importance of Black media to the Black community; and (3) inform and educate Black Americans of their economic clout as consumers.

Annual Meeting, Tacoma Housing Authority

DEAR EDITOR:

I deeply appreciate the existence of The Tacoma Facts. It is without a doubt the voice, calendar, and media equalizer for the Black Community of Tacoma. Time and time again the other local media fail to adequately share news and events that impact us.

The recent TNT and KSTW/Channel 11, coverage of the Tacoma Housing Authority (THA) August 27, 1981, Board of Commissioners public meeting is an excellent example of their "qualified" coverage. the articles I read and the 11:00 O'Clock P.M., news broadcast I saw suggested a rather tame, business as usual meeting. However, as a meetin attendent I am inclined to agree with a recent Facts commentary on the THA where it was proposed that "perhaps racism is again raising its ugly head", in regards to certain THA matters. Why, one may ask?

Why did Chairperson, Dave White attempt to restrict the comments from quest portion of the agenda to Salishan residents only? Was it because two-thirds of the guests were Black? Mr. White made no such move at previous board meetings, when a room full of White guests were present. Does Mr. White always react in a restrictive mood when Blacks are present? Nonetheless, this move was eloquently countered by the President of the Tacoma Urban League, (TUL), Mr. Tom Dixon.

Why did commissioner Dave Grassi attempt to nullify and stop all the personal and professional accolades that are being offered by White Salishan residents, Black clergy and Community organizations, such as the NAACP and TUL on behalf of Julius Curry and Hezekiah (Bill) Gilven? Mr. Curry and Mr. Gilven, both Black men have been the objects of recent criticism by some residents. However, Mr. Grassi has not seen fit in the past to restrict the flow of negative comments about these THA Administrators. Why allow negatives but not accolades especially when moments later the meeting agenda called for the appointment of an Acting Director? Was Mr. Grassi attempting to minimize or limit public support of Mr. Gilven, a prime candidate, for the Acting Director's position? Mr. Gilven was subsequently not selected for the temporary promotion?

Why did commissioner Mrs.Piva, at a past meeting formally submit a motion to eliminate three (3) management positions, two of which are held by Black men? Mrs. Piva's rationale was the monies saved in personnel expenses could be used to clean up the parks in Salishan. At the August 27, 1981, meeting Mrs. Piva reported the park situation was adequately resolved. It should be noted that resolution was achieved without the radical (not racial) personnel cuts she supported. Was Mrs. Piva so unaware of THA budget levels and maintenance department capabilities that she felt only a personnel action could rectify the status of the parks? Was there a hidder personal agenda regarding these two Black men in effect which preciptiated Mrs. Piva's actions? either, of the two possibilities are unacceptable for a Board Commissioner. Also, if resident complaints seem to be in the areas of parks and facility maintenance and leasing issues surrounding, getting into Salishan and evictions, ect. Why didn't Mr.s Piva move to replace the managers of Maintenance and Leasing and perhaps reorganize those positions? Was it because these positions are held by White Administrators? It seems strange that it was the manager of Maintenance, Mr. Pinegar, who was appointed Acting Director of THA.

Mrs. Piva's energies to clean up the parks could have better been expended in attempts to provide support services for the residents in areas like educational counseling, career development programs, etc. The clean parks will now provide a safe comfortable setting for the criminal assaults on Elderly residents which reportedly is another major concern of the residents.

A final key point surfaced at the August 27, 1981, meeting, it was not mentioned by TNT or KSTW/CH-11, in their coverage. However, it remains a critical concern of the minority community. It was the Board's assurance that all Affirmative Action guidelines and requirements would be faithfully adhered to in the official search for a permanent Executive Director. Thus, publicy declaring that not pre-selection deals define this temporary appointment of Mr. Pinegar, to THA Acting Executive Director position.

It is important that the Black community and hopefully The Facts continue to keep a "watchfully eye" on the THA and other public entries and report the total facts to the people who are affected.

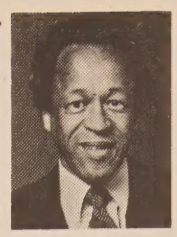
AN INDEPENDENT REPORTS ON WASHINGTON

By Gus Savage
Member of Congress



Angola Invaded By South Africa

By Gus Savage
Member of Congress

I must interrupt my reports from Africa to insert this urgent commentary on an event in Africa which occurred since I returned to the United States.

Angola has appealed to the United Nations for help in repelling the recent, large-scale, deep reinvasion of its territory and the continued occupation of Namibia by fasicst South Africa.

Well, as you know, I just returned from visiting both South Africa and Angola, including a region of previous invasion by South African troops and American mercenaries. I met Angola's brilliant 43-year-old President, Jose dos Santos, and he warned of this pending invasion. He begged to know why the United States insists on siding with South Africa, against practically all other nations of the world, on the question of Namibian independence.

My findings in Africa further convinced me of what are the two greatest dangers now facing Africa. First, is the neo-colonial greed of United States and European big business. Second, is the belligerent intransigence of the fascist South African government, evidenced by its reinvasion of Angola and continued occupation of Namibia.

I am ashamed to report, that the facist South African government has been supported by the Reagan Administration in nine instances during its very first six months in office. Without these nine instances of U.S. encouragement, I do not believe South Africa would have again challenged the courage and commitment to freedom of Angolans and Namibians.

After all, South Africa was defeated in its last American supported invasion attempt in 1979. In fact, while in Angola, I saw American arms captured from South African forces.

Let me list the nine instances of the Reagan Administration's support of the racist, anti-christian, brutal South African regime: 1.) The Reagan Administration vetoed sanctions against South Africa, proposed last April by Third World nations. 2.) It has upgraded military attaches between the United States and South AFrica. 3.) It is training South African coast guardsmen. 4.) It is encouraging increasing United States investments in and imports from South Africa. 5.) It has established friendly sports relations with South Africa, as indicated by the United Sates granting visas to South Africa's Rugby team, to play in Chicago on September 19th, though South African sports representatives have been banned from Olympic competition and by all other African nations and most other nations of the world. 6.) Reagan personally has received top South African fascist leaders in the United States. 7.) In cooperation with South Africa, Reagan's Administration has evaded UN Resolution 435, which requires South Africa to permit immediate free elections, under UN supervision, in Namibia. 8.) He has called for repeal of the Clark amendment, which prohibits U.S. military aid for South African-backed counter revolutionary violence in Angola. 9.) On technicalities, he is leaning on two prominent South African exiles: Professor Dennis Brutus, of Northwestern University (with tenure of 10 years), is under order to leave the United States; and Professor Cosmo Pieterse, of Ohio State University (with tenure of almost 10 years) was refused a re-entry visa to the United States last fall.

It was a disgrace and a sin for Reagan to merely respond to Angola's plea by noting that the South African side of the issue should be considered, while even other Western world nations condemned the aggression.

I am happy to include by noting two major speaking engagments of mine, both scheduled for September 12th in Chicago, Illinois.

At 10:00 a.m. that Saturday, I will make my thir public accountablity report, on Operation PUSH's weekly rally, at 930 East 50th Street. It will be broadcast by three local radio stations, and will be devoted mainly to my African trip.

At noon, I will address an open air rally, in the Civic Center Plaza, against the appearance of South Africa's national Rugby team set for September 19th.

Incidentally, if you do not know, as much as my workload permits, I am available for speaking engagements anywhere in the country. Just phone 202/225-0773, or write to me at 1233 Longworth House Office Building, Washington, D.C. 20515.

Next week, I will resume my reports from Africa.

"Hotshots" Flocked To Tacoma Clinics

Pepsi/NBA/Safeway HOTSHOT came to Tacoma August 15 and 16 and hundreds of kids jammed four Tacoma Safeway parking lots to meet SuperSonic Jack Sikma and compete in the HOTSHOT clinics.

HOTSHOT is a one-minute race against the clock wherein contestants attempt to score as many points as possible from five points or "hotspots" on the basketball court. The clinics introduce the game to youths between the ages of nine and 18 before the competitive program begins in September.

Winners in each age division, boys and girls 9-12, 13-15, and 16-18, won trophies, Sonic tickets and a picture with Sikma.

High point honors went to David Feleyn and Alex Spearman (tie in the boys 13-15) at the 1112 S. "M" Street clinic, Eddie Richie (boys 9-12) at the 3507 McKinley Avenue clinic, Marcus Stevens (boys 9-12) at the 1302 S. 38th Street clinic and Mike White (boys 16-18) at the 707 S. 56th Street clinic.

Competitive HOTSHOT will begin next month at local Parks and Recreation Department playground sites. As a national program, winners advance to further competition, with playoffs structured similar to the NBA playoffs. The summer clinics are sponsored by the Pepsi-Cola Bottling Companies of Seattle and Tacoma, the Seattle SuperSonics and Safeway Stores, Inc.

Other winners at the 1112 S. "M" Street clinic were Jennifer Lamb (girls 9-12), Romel Bracel (boys 9-12), Sue Harvey (girls 16-18) and Donald Clark (boys 16-18). There were no girls 13-15 participants.

Other winners at the 3507 McKinley Avenue clinic were DarShon Hemphill (girls 9-12), Tim Manson (boys 13-15), Debra Rhodes (girls 16-18) and Andreas Bonaparte (boys 16-18). There were no girls 13-15 participants.

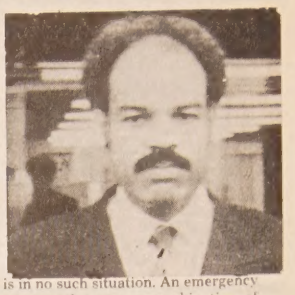
Minette Larson and Heather Aiken tied for first in the girls 9-12 division at the 1302 S. 38th Street clinic while Phillip Ellis (boys 13-15), Zina Habbs (girls 16-18) and Ben Canales (boys 16-18) won their respective division. Again, there were no girls 13-15 participants.

At the 707 S. 56th Street clinic Jeannette MacFarlane (girls 9-12), David Allgile (boys 9-12), Heidi Urban (girls 13-15), Jim Anderson (boys 13-15) and Kim Munson (girls 16-18) were division winners.

James Buckley, a Washington attorney, recently returned to Tacoma and joined the law firm of Herrmann Levenson, Margulis & Finch, after having spent three (3) years as a senior deputy prosecuting attorney with Thurston County. He was assigned to the criminal law section.

Buckley will be writing a weekly article for The Tacoma Facts over the next several months. His articles will cover various areas of the law.

James C. Buckley's Legal FACTS



Torts - Negligence

In the last article we spent a substantial amount of time covering the standard of conduct required of the individual in their exercise of their daily affairs. The standard of care being that of a reasonable person. This week we will talk about the application of that standard of conduct.

The application of the standard of reasonable conduct is as wide as all human behavior. There is scarely any act which, under some conceivable circumstances, may not involve an unreasonable risk of harm. However, since the standard is a community standard, evidence of the usual and customary conduct of others under similar circumstances is normally relevant and admissible, as an indication of what the community regards as proper. If an actor does only what anyone else has done, there is at least an inference that he is ocnforming to the community's idea of reasonable behavior.

In a particular case where there is nothing in the evidence or in common experience to lead to the contrary conclusion, this inference may be so strong that it calls for a directed verdict on the issue of negligence. Directed verdict ,meaning that the Judge under this example, enters an order in your favor ruling that no negligence exists. It seems quite possible, in the absence of some special circumstances, where an automobile is driven along a private road, with no applicable highway statue, that it is not neglience to drive on the left side of the road. It should be obvious, however, that this is a matter of the custom itself, of its general acceptance by the community and the general reliance upon it, and of all of the circumstances of the case. It may become highly dangerous to follow the usual practice of bumping railroad cars together, on a day when brakemen must stand on top of cars which are covered with ice.

There can certainly be such a thing as customary negligence, as the unchecked habit of jaywalking in some communities will suggest. And if the only test is to be what has been done before, no industry or group will ever have any great incentive to make progress in the direction of safety. Undoubtedly, few cases exist where a defendant has been found liable for failure to do what no one in his position has ever done before; but there appears to be no doubt that some cases do exist.

There are many circumstances which will have bearing upon the standard of conduct required. The Court's have been compelled to recognize that an actor who is ocnfronted with an emergency is not to be held to the standard of conduct normally applied to one who is in no such situation. An emergency has been defined as a certain or unexpected event or combination of circumstances which cause for immediate action.

The conduct required under the "emergency" rule is still that of a reasonable person under the circumstances, and the emergency is only one of the circumstances. An objective standard is still applied and the actor's own judgement or impulse is still not the sole criterion. He may still be found to be negligent if, notwithstanding the emergency, his acts are found to be unreasonable.able. Furthermore, the "emergency" rule obviously cannot serve to excuse the actor who has created the emergency through his own negligence. It is not the conduct after the emergency has arisen which is not excused, but the prior negligence.

Another situation having bearing upon the standard of conduct, is where the actor has or should have anticipated the conduct of another. Anyone with normal experiences is required to have knowledge of the traits and habits of animals and of other human beings, and to govern himself accordingly. He may be required to anticipate that persons who are ill or intoxicated may wander into places of danger. As it was stated in one case, "a drunken man is as much entitled to the safe street, as a sober one, and much more in need of it." Generally, where the risk is relatively slight, the actor is free to proceed upon assumption that other people will exercise proper care. It would be near impossible to move traffic if drivers could not asume that other cars will keep to the right, and drive accordingly. The particular circumstances will dictate the reasonableness of the driver's behavior. When children are in the vicinity the driver necessarily is expected to keep a mroe attentive look-out than when only adults are present. Leaving the key in the ignition lock of a car parked on the street may be found not to involve any unreasonable risk of harm to those in the vicinity, notwithstanding the obvious possiblity of thief. However, if the vehicle is a 30 ton bulldozer, parked on a plateau, and curious children have shown a disposition to meddle with it, the risk becomes entirely unreasonable.

What this all amounts to, is a review of all the surrounding circumstances, and a determination by the jury as to the reasonableness of the actor's behavior. The freedom to move about the world carries with it a responsibility to exercise reasonable cae. The failure to exercise reasonable care dictates negligence on the part of the actor.

A Better Tomorrow

"Together we can build better tomorrows." That's Tacoma Public Schools' slogan for the new school year which begins Sept. 9 when classes get under way for more than 26,000 youngsters who attend Tacoma's elementary and secondary schools. Head Start, federally funded preschool classes held in various elementary schools, begins Sept. 21.

According to Washington State law, students who attend public schools must be immunized against diptheria, tetanus, pertussis, polio, measles and rebella before school begins. The Tacoma-Pierce County Health Department offers an Immunization Clinic at 3629 S. D St. from 8 a.m. to 4 p.m. Monday through Friday. Each immunization costs $2. For information about other immunization clinics in and around Tacoma, call 593-4807.

Twenty-day meal tickets for breakfasts and lunches will be on sale the first school day of each month and each Monday. Students may also buy meals on a cash basis daily. Prices for the 1981-82 school year are 50 cents for breakfast and 85 cents for lunch at elementary schools; 60 cents for breakfast and $1 for lunch at the junior and senior highs. Milk will cast 20 cents per carton. Free and reduced price lunches are available to qualifying families.

In addition to health and hot lunches, transportation is another concern as back-to-school time rolls around. Application forms for bus passes are available through school offices which can be used on Pierce Transit. Kindergarten through third grade students who live more than a mile from school, fourth through sixth grade students who live more than 1.2 miles from school, and seventh through 12 graders who live more than 2 miles from school, are eligible for free bus transportation.

Transportation for students with handicapping conditions is also available through the district's special education programs. For additional information contact the transportation office at 593-6685.

Additional information about Tacoma Public Schools appears in "Home and School Working Together," a publication which includes a 12-month calendar.

Veterans News

Former preisoners of war who were incarcerated for as short a period as 30 days may now have certain disabilities accepted as having been incurred in service without having to furnish medical proof of that fact, according to the Veterans Administration.

The 30-day incarceration period (it used to be six months) is contained in legislation recently enacted by Congress, which also waives the two-year period following service during which certain psychological disorders must manifest themselves in order to be service connected.

These and other changes are contained in the "Prisoner of War Health Care Benefits Act of 1981," which was signed into law by President Reagan on August 14.

The new law is designed to meet the needs of the estimated 100,000 former prisoners of war. A joint Veterans Administration-Department of Defense study in 1980 found these veterans have higher incidences of physical and psychological disabilities because of confinement that was characterized by starvation diets, lack of medical care and inhumane treatment.

Former prisoners of war may also have experienced difficulties in establishing claims for service connected disabilities due to inadequate repatriation examinations.

The legislation also creates an Advisory Committee on Former Prisoners of War which will make biennial reports to the VA Administrator and to Congress on problems in the areas of compensation, health care and rehabilitation which affect this group.

Jean Watley's
Who's Who

Who is this Rindetta Stewart? Just about everyone knows that she is Assistant Superintendent of Tacoma School District No. 10. And there are those who regard her as a shrewd woman with no regard for tack. She is straight forward and to the point in both her actions and verbal communication.

But now, there is another side to this lady that apparently not all has the opportunity to see. There is a genuine love and concern for those that are unable to go to defend themselves. Many of her goals are set based on how the outcome will affect others.

A little of Rindetta's history can reveal why she has such a strong determination to reach out and help, reach out and encourage, reach out and push, reach out and heal an open wound. As a child, she recalled, I grew up in Yakima, I really had a success up in Yakima, I really had no success model outside of my own family. All the school teachers were as racists as any other. They never gave me any positive reinforcements." She mentioned one specific incident in her childhood that has stuck with her during her lifetime. A counsellor, (whose picture now sits on the wall of the Hall of Fame in the school for the outstanding counselling ability) told Rindetta that if she continued to get good grades in school, when time for graduation came, she would see to it that Rindetta got a good job working for one of the wealthy apple growers in as domestic help because its difficult to find domestic help that is intelligent. Needless to say, Rindetta didn't find it feasible to accept such an offer.

According to Rindetta, knowledge has no color, and nobody knows everything. She has learned that for herself. She has made her way because she did not allow herself to be sucked into such degrading rationale of those responsible for the construction of her future.

Today Ms. Stewart serves her community in a most professional way. Those that perhaps do not under her frankness, misinterpret her intentions. But underneathithe misinterpretations, the word still comes that she is one of the most effective young black women of today. Rindetta is quite aware of her successfulness, she contributes much of it to her ability to take her job seriously but not personally. She knows what her capabilities are and has no problem executing them. She again encourages the young as well as the old to prepare yourselves to move-up. Feel good about yourself and be highly motivated and set your goals and be prepared to go through the process to get there. Thank you Rindetta for your contribution to not only the students but to those who are already out in the world trying to make it. Thank you again.

Delores Silas, Mrs. Wesley, Mrs. McCabe look on as Clara cox awards Judge Shackleford a plaque with a golden gavel from City Association of Colored Women's Clubs

Goodbye

By Sadino Smith

Tacomans paid homage to Judge Elizabeth Shackleford last Saturday at a reception at the City Association of Colored Women's Clubhouse. She is a retired attorney and District Court Judge who never retired she was forever the champion of causes unpoplar. She is going to live with her sister in Oklahoma.

Among the many speakers were, Mrs. J.W. Wesley, Mrs. Eliza McCabe, Franklin Burgess, Hugh Fountain, Ruth Daniels, Ella Crawford, Clara Cox, Tom Dixon, Rev. Brazill, Rev. J.A. Boles, Judge Skidmore, Delores Silas, Judy Wright,and Hugh Wells. Each had a bit to say about the influence or mark Judge Shackleford had left upon them and their environment or organizations.

The Committee that arranged this event were Clara Cox, Goldie Royal, Janabea Wilson, Mary Holland, Ella Crawford and Elsie Dorsey.

Time is the most important thing to use and a person who gives it is truly giving of themselves which is exactly what Judge Shackleford did as she took her time and gave it to us. We thank you Sadino Smith is a 18 years old youth worker for the FACTS. He is an artist and hopes to become a professional photographer.

TACOMA 1985

City of Tacoma COMMUNITY DEVELOPMENT 1982-1985

We will see many changes in Tacoma by 1985. The Tacoma Dome, Pantages Center and other planned projects will significantly improve the quality of life in Tacoma. You have an opportunity to help plan some of the community improvements that will be made during the next three years by participating in the Community Development program. The City of Tacoma expects to receive about $9 million during the next three years in Community Development Block Grant funds for community improvements. The City may also receive Urban Development Action Grant funds and other federal funds for physical and economic development.

According to current regulations, the City of Tacoma must submit a new, three-year Community Development Plan and program by March, 1982 allocating funds to projects to be implemented between June, 1982 to July, 1983. In the past funds have been allocated to projects one year at a time, but this year the City is required to select projects up to three years in advance. (Pending federal regulation changes may modify the requirement for a three-year program.)

The Community Development Block Grant (CDBG) and Urban Development Action Grant (UDAG) programs are primarily intended for physical improvement projects. The primary objective of the CDBG program is to "provide decent housing and a suitable living environment and expand economic opportunities, principally for low- and moderate-income persons." (Housing and Community Development Act of 1974) The objective of the Urban Development Action Grant program is to stimulate private investment in deteriorating areas suffering population decline and a decreasing tax base.

The City's Community Development Department administers these and other programs related to housing, economic development, historic preservation and neighborhood improvements.

PLANNING SCHEDULE

If you would like to help decide how Community Development funds will be used, you should be aware of these dates:

August 18-September 25: Proposals accepted for Community Development Program

September 14, 16, 17: Neighborhood public hearings (see details under "Public Hearings")

October 27-November 12: Urban Policy Committee meets to review proposals and decide funding recommendations

December-January: City Council reviews recommendations, holds a public hearing on recommended application and approves Community Development Plan and Program

March 26: Application submitted to Department of Housing and Urban Development

PROPOSAL APPLICATION

A portion of the expected $9 million in grant funds, minus previous commitments and administrative costs, will be available for proposals submitted by citizens, neighborhood groups, community organizations and city departments. If you would like to propose a project for funding during June, 1982 to July, 1983, you must submit a proposal application this year. Forms and background information are available from the:

Community Development Department, 740 St. Helens Avenue, 10th Floor, or City Clerk, Room 338, County-City Building, 930 Tacoma Avenue S., or Tacoma Public Libraries.

Application packets will also be available at the neighborhood public hearings. Proposal applications must be submitted to the Community Development Department by September 24, 1981. Proposals must be submitted by that date to insure consideration for funding during the next three years.

Proposals will be selected on how well they meet the following:

- Eligibility requirements (summary available from Community Development
- Benefit to low- and moderate-income persons or removal of slums and blight
- Tacoma City Council policies for Community Development
- Location — priority given to projects in the Central, Eastside and Southwest Neighborhood Strategy Areas
- Other federal, state or city legislation, plans or policies

PUBLIC HEARINGS

Three neighborhood public hearings are planned so you can discuss neighborhood problems and proposed solutions with the Urban Policy Committee — the committee responsible for recommending Community Development programs to the City Council. The committee will use your comments in making its recommendations. The hearings are scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on:

September 14 — Stanley School
1712 South 17th

September 16 — South Park Community Center
4851 South Tacoma Way

September 17 — McKinley School
3702 McKinley Avenue

Once the Committee has made its recommendations the City Council will hold a public hearing on the program in December or January.

ASSISTANCE

If you need help understanding the proposal forms or program requirements, contact the Community Development Department at 593-4660 for assistance. Staff members will be available before and after the neighborhood public hearings and at the Peoples Community Center, 16th and K Streets, 8. a.m. to 11:30 a.m. on September 19 to answer questions.

A Day At The Races

Couples, Singles, families and friends all 143 of them, showed up for the Tacoma Urban League Guild's Doo Dah Day. This was one of the many fund raisers held during the year to support the Urban Leagues' programs. A day at the races, a first time event for many of the attenders where a beautiful buffet luncheon was served in the Podduck Club and you got a chance to guess at the winner of a race or perhaps even wager. Urban League President Tom Dixon was playing guess who's gonna win - he seemed to have more fun saying I told you so, then wagering and collecting $$. Pictured on this page are some of the Guild members and supporters too numerous to name. The seventh race 1 mile 1/16 was the Tacoma Urban League Guild purse 8,500 for Fillies and Mares three years old and upward. The horses could be claimed (bought) for $20,000.

The winner was number 6, Fancy Guest, ridden by Apprenticé Jockey Tony Grissom. Terri Cato, President of the Guild says she hopes this will become an annual event. It is a fun way to raise money.
